E-GCPM Modular helps students deepen Project Management Book of Knowledge

16 November 2021

Project management is a fast-growing profession.

Continuous certification in project management is in line with the United Nations' Social Development Goals, which aim to provide access to affordable and high-quality technical, vocational and higher education for young people in developing countries.

However, the COVID-19 pandemic has made it difficult for students who want to improve their skills through certification and training in project management.
