Community

UMP Kilau volunteers serve the community in KL

Fri, 05/12/2023 - 11:29

KUALA LUMPUR, 2 April 2023 - A total of 50 UMP Kilau volunteers in Yayasan UMP Squad and Universiti Malaysia Pahang (UMP) alumni joined Projek Secangkir Budi as one of the initiatives to help underprivileged people around Kuala Lumpur.

A total of 300 food packs, 50 aid kits and preloved items from public donations were distributed to those in need.

The programme director, a UMP alumnus, Azmira Othman said, starting with visiting Keluarga Besar Norlina Alawi in Kampung Cheras Baru, its founder Norlina Alawi, better known as Mama, welcomed the volunteers consisting of Yayasan UMP Squad and alumni.

“Through Mama’s exciting stories, volunteers can learn more about the lives of special needs children, orphans and underprivileged children she has supported for 22 years.

“In addition, Yayasan UMP Squad and alumni had the opportunity to break their fast with 38 Pertubuhan Rahoma Darul Fakir Miskin residents in Kampung Datuk Keramat.

“Even though the time spent was short, the memories through various activities with the children will be remembered,” she said.

Azmira added that although the volunteers were exhausted, they managed to establish relationships with orphans and asnaf and remained energetic in their efforts to help those in need.

Projek Secangkir Budi also provided 50 packs of food aid kits and preloved items such as clothing, toys and personal necessities to the less fortunate around Lorong Haji Taib, Kuala Lumpur.

Singgah Sahur programme was also done where sahur meals were distributed to night shift workers and homeless people in several areas such as Tol Ampang, IPD Dang Wangi, Sentul Police Station and Masjid Jamek.

By: Muhammad Zufli Zuhairi, Yayasan UMP

Translation by: Dr. Rozaimi Abu Samah, Engineering College/Faculty of Chemical and Process Engineering Technology

- 126 views

View PDF