GAMBANG, 26 October 2024 – Having received the Dean’s List Award throughout his studies at Universiti Malaysia Pahang Al-Sultan Abdullah (UMPSA), Bachelor of Technology Management (Infrastructure) with Honours graduate from the Faculty of Civil Engineering Technology (FTKA), Jeevanraj a/l Selvaraj, 25, takes pride in being one of the recipients of an award at the 19th UMPSA Convocation Ceremony today.

According to the Penangite, who received the Malakoff Corporation Excellence Award, he did not expect to maintain consistent academic excellence throughout his studies.

“During my seven years at UMPSA, starting from diploma studies to a bachelor’s degree, I have witnessed the progress and upgrades at UMPSA in terms of facilities and highly conducive teaching methods.

“The experienced and responsible lecturers at UMPSA also played a significant role in helping me maintain this excellence,” he said.

Holding firmly to the principle of giving back, Jeevanraj hopes to sustain the cycle of progress and continue lifelong learning to improve his standard of living.

Moreover, he also aspires to be a person who contributes positively to his family, community, and nation.

For him, education is the key to building a humane and intellectual society.

Jeevanraj is currently working as a Consulting Executive at a multinational corporation, ERM (M) Sdn. Bhd., in Kuala Lumpur.
