UMPSA ranked 53rd in the world for sustainabi

Universiti Malaysia Pahang Al-Sultan Abdullah (UMPSA) continues to excel as Malaysia's leading technical university, achieving the 53rd position in the world in the UI GreenMetric Sustainable University Rankings 2026, as recently announced.

This achievement places UMPSA first in the Malaysian Technical University Network (MTUN) and third among all technical universities in Malaysia.

According to UMPSA Vice-Chancellor, Professor Ts. Dr. Yatimah Alias, the university has made encouraging progress in sustainable practices through its various university programmes.

"This achievement demonstrates UMPSA's commitment to developing a green and sustainable campus."
