“This country does not compromise on any act of terrorism that could pose a threat to the national security and

“It can be seen from the efforts of combating the activities of Malaysians who have joined the Daish militia in Sri Lanka (LTTE),” he said.

The organisation of Bicara Cendekiawan Mulia is implemented as a means of acquiring knowledge for the people of Pahang.

The programme chair, Associate Professor Dr. Jamal Rizal Razali from the Centre for Human Sciences said the programme was launched on 25 June 2019 as a platform to bring local and international prominent figures into UMP.

“These figures serve to analyse current issues across various dimensions and points of view for the benefit of the community as a whole.

“Among the personalities who have graced the programme include Emeritus Professor Datuk Dr. Nik Saiful Zaman, founder of Yayasan Budi, discussing on 'Malay Language and National Identity Empowerment Challenges in the 21st Century'.

The programme was held at the Banquet Hall, Chancellery, UMP Pekan on 30 January 2020, which was Professor Ir. Dr. Wan Azhar Wan Yusoff and Deputy Chief 2, Pahang Special Branch (Intelligence and Operations).

UMP empowers the high level Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) and continues to be the main role as an institute of higher learning. This is to ensure its technological expertise and high impact research to the community and drive the nation's technical capability.
