"Moreover, if my life is extended for only about eight more years, I can serve the university because I am obligated to retire at the age of 56.

"I am grateful and very proud to be a UMPSA citizen; I have gained many benefits and facilities during my service here," he said.

He said, praised be to God, his health condition is improving, and he can still move, albeit limited in speed, but it does not hinder teaching sessions and laboratory sessions.
