More than just academics

17 May 2024

In the ongoing discourse about reforming our education system, one crucial aspect often overlooked is the importance of maintaining a healthy work-life balance among academics. It's easy to overlook the multifaceted identities of our professional identities: professors, researchers, scholars, and teachers. We are not just academics; we are also parents, spouses, and friends. We are husbands, wives, sons, daughters, parents, friends, siblings, neighbours, and members of meaningful communities.
