The Story of Malaysia

11 September 2024

Let's face it! Malaysia has faced a complex and turbulent journey in its pursuit of stability, marked by unpredictable leadership transitions, shifting political alliances, and widespread corruption. For decades, Malaysia has grappled with deep-seated issues of racial and religious polarization, which have undermined efforts to forge national unity and social cohesion. Since gaining independence, the country has been navigating a landscape of political volatility and ethnic divergence.
